“ Gran, you will always live on in my cherished and loving memories of our time we spent together. Remember listening to the scanner when I would spend overnight? Back then, there wasn't a lot of excitement on the scanner but always enjoyed laying there with you waiting for something to come across. I remember helping you pick vegetables from your garden when I didn't even know what I was picking nor would I eat! And the many pairs of jeans I would have you rip apart just so you could sew them to make the skinny jeans I wanted, and painting with you in your little "studio," and trying to play the organ that you so wonderfully played. And remember the time you picked me up from school because I was soooo sick and you stopped at a yard sale on East Pea Ridge because you wouldn't be able to come back out and didn't want to miss it?! You don't know how many times I think of that day and it always makes me chuckle! I could write a book on all the memories I have of you Gran, and the family memories of all us together. I rejoice in knowing that you have been restored your health and body in Heaven and that you are with your parents, siblings, Pop and Mom (and we can't forget about Winky!) and enjoying God's promise. I love you Gran!

“ Sorry Bud, now she gets to be with your dad & sister. The last time we were all together she said Murray, when you were young I couldn't get you to talk and now I can't get you to shut up. R.I.P sweet lady. Call if you need to talk, etc.
