“ I did not know Mr. stickler well, but we did share a lot of common areas. Anytime we met, it was always cordial. We both retired from teaching, and we both loved our Lord.

I was privileged to have taught his grandson in the fourth grade, and he always updated me regarding him. Hr had taught with my sister in Point Pleasant, and he always asked about her. Above everything, he always shared his Love for God and his family.

My prayers are with you.

“ Melvin always had a smile ready every time we met, usually at 10 Ave COG. We would sing base in the choir.

Great memories of another Saint from those days who is now with our Lord!

“ I remember Melvin as a kind and nice person. We both lived on 26th Street and took the same school bus.

I talked to Melvin when I was in Huntington for our HEHS 50th Anniversary.

I will keep his family in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I will NEVER forget the kind, loving and gentle man that was Melvin Stickler. He was ALWAYS, ALWAYS kind and easy going, and always had something wonderful and true to say about our beautiful redheaded grandchildren. (He and Lola sure have some lovely grand and great grandchildren, too). Lola, I am sorry for the loss that will be felt in your home, yours and Val's hearts, the Jefferson Ave Church of God, and ALL the hearts of his friends who love him and you. I KNOW he is rejoicing in the presence of our Lord now. He is healed and he is whole! He is "drinking from the saucer cause' his cup has overflowed"! You, Val and the entire family are in our prayers, Lola.

“ Lola and family:

We are so sorry for your loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. May God wrap you in his comfort and peace.

"I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love." Leo Buscaglia

“ Many things about tomorrow
I don't seem to understand
But I know who holds tomorrow
And I know who holds my hand

Melvin sang it ... now he is experiencing it!

“ Melvin has always held a special place in our hearts as a lifelong true friend. He was a man that possessed a kind gentle spirit, including a sense of humor. He loved his wife, daughter, grandchildren, and brother relentlessly. Melvin loved the Lord, enjoyed singing his whole life for God, and meeting with his church family. We will miss you Melvin. Rest in the healing arms of God.

“ Dew was a very kind gentleman. I am so sorry to hear of his passing, but Heaven just got a little brighter with him there. You Lola, and Dewey were always so compassionate, kind, and loving to me and my family. May God wraps His loving arms around you and give you blessed assurance that everything is going to be ok. Love, and miss seeing, you.
