John N. Griffith, 86, of Huntington, West Virginia, went home to be with the Lord, Tuesday, May 29, 2018 at home. He was born September 12, 1931 to Henry Ray and Lola (Martin) Griffith, Sr. He was preceded in death by his brothers, Thomas Griffith and H.R. John was a faithful member of Steele Memorial Methodist Church of Barboursville, WV, where he made numerous lasting friendships and enjoyed, along with his wife, guiding the Steele Singles Class and More for many years. John's special interests were wide and varied, from raising orchids to researching his ancestry, and shopping EBay for ethnic jewelry, oriental rugs, clocks and old pocket watches (especially ones that didn't run). He was also an avid reader and Marshall University sports fan. John enjoyed God's creation, both observing nature around him, as well as spending time with his beloved pets. He truly had a tender heart for all creatures great and small.

He is survived by his loving wife of 39 years, Phyllis J. Griffith; his two daughters, Donna Liniger (John) and Lisa Bragg (Doug), as well as stepson, Chris Kelley (Rita). Additionally, he is survived by six grandchildren: Justin Liniger, Jenna Hunter, Volodya Bragg, Sergey Bragg, Christin Chapman, and Shawn Kelley, and many great-grandchildren.

“ What a beautiful tribute to a wonderful man, my Uncle Johnny. He never said a harsh word to me (even when I dented and scratched his car). Lol. Prayers for Phyllis, Donna and Lisa and the whole family. With love, Dee
