“ To Kathy and Robert, Lori and Robbie, and to the rest of Amy's family and friends..you all are in my thoughts and prayers in this saddest of times. Words can not even begin to express how sorry I was to hear the news. It has been a long time since I have seen or spoke with Amy but dearly remember the times we had together as kids. She was a wonderful and beautiful person and will truly be missed!

“ To my cousin. Amy I know that I wasn't able to be here for you and the family for the last few years and I want you to know that I love you and I always will carry you in my heart! You were the best cousin, Mother, grandmother, daughter and sister anyone could ever ask for and you will be missed very much by everyone! I'm so sorry that I couldn't spend more time with you since I moved back, but one of these precious days god gives us we will all be together again as a whole family until that day comes just know that you are loved and missed by many people. I thank god for taking you into his arms and know that you are in heaven with your grandma and grandpa and you are all having a blast. Love your cousin Erica Elizabeth George!!!

“ Dear Amy, My big sis & best friend. We grew up together and had so many precious memories. Then you lost your way for a bit, but I never stopped loving you and I know you never stopped loving me. I know God saw your troubles and took you in his loving arms that morning. I know you are in a better place now, but I selfishly want you by my side. You always felt down on yourself, but you were such an inspiration to me because you overcame the demons and came back home..to the place you belonged. A place where you never had to look past any of our faces to know love and acceptance. You sacrificed so very much for your babies and grandbabies and I vow to be there for them, although I know your shoes would be too big to fill. I will stand behind the armour of God and he will help my heart and guide me with your help as I try to carry on. You just told me the other day, "Always follow your heart and be happy." You truly were the best sister..all my years..in my heart. I will treasure our memories. I miss you terribly and know you will always be with me. I love you big sis and I will see you again one sweet day. I know you will meet me with our nephew and grandparents at Heaven's gates so be ready for me sister. We just belong together & I'm glad I have God's promise that we will be again. Forever your lil sis, Lori Rebecca

“ Dear Robert, Kathy, Brianna, Alexis, Lori, Robbie, Sarah, & Others:
The sudden death of a loved one always affords us unexpected difficulties & grief. Coupled with this understanding is the fact that we should never underestimate the wisdom & love of Almighty God. He will always do what is right.
It is our prayer that you would find the solace & strength that our Savior supplies during such trying times.
We love you, and, though we are a great distance, share your sorrow & join you in the hope that Christ's empty tomb provides.
