“ I just can't believe my sweet friend is gone. I loved her so very much. Her laughter and sense of humor got me through some very rough days. I worked with Amy for 15 years and knew her longer than that. I loved her jokes and she anyways beat the dickens out of me playing Word scrabble. My deepest sympathy to Rennie and Yvonne. I know how much she loved you both. My heart is broken. The world lost a jewel but God welcomed a new angel to Heaven.

“ To the Family of Amy: She and I graduated the same year and while may our lives went in different geographical directions, I have only the fondest memories of Amy during our delightful times together in school. She was shy, sweet and charming. Your loss, Heaven's gain. May Amy rest in the sweet sleep of peace. With our deepest condolences, we are very truly yours.

“ When I saw the name in the newspaper memory brought me back to the days of Jr. High and High School. She was a kind, compassionate, hopeful, loving classmate. People mattered to her. Those of us who knew her from Barboursville will remember her spirit. I have no doubt she heard "Well-done my child". May her mother, husband, and extended family know comfort in these days to come.

“ Those of us who share Rennie's passion for studying wild birds remember Amy as his closest partner in that endeavor. We frequently saw her sweet self by his side, in support and companionship. We will hold on to the memory of the two of them together.

Amy was so kind and I will miss that gentle lady. I worked with her for over 20 years and never heard a harsh word. She will be missed!
