“ I am sorry for your loss. I hope you know that she is in a better place with no more pain. Here is My Most Favorite scripture in the whole bible...and it's a promise.

John 14:1-4,6; "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Fathers's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that WHERE I am, there YE may be ALSO! And wither I go ye know, and the way ye know. 6.) Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me!

So, Here is the best promise, quote, saying EVER spoken. May it bring your family the peace and comfort need in this time of sorry. Be strong and blessed while share blessing to those who need also. Adina Graham and Family.

“ My thoughts and prayers goes out to the family. I knew Andrea from elementary and high school, she was a great person and it's true she was a little spitfire. We had choir together as well. My heart goes out to the children at this time for I know how rough it is to lose a parent close to the holidays, ecspecially at Christmas, that's the toughet. My God Bless the family and comfort them in this time of sorrow.

“ Hello, I am deeply sad to hear of your mom's passing. I was one of your mom's best friends. We was a crazy bunch. Your mom was as sassy as they got. I missed running around with her, Tina and Helen. We enjoyed singing together we would make up songs to different things. She was a spirited and wild girl. She would say Linda come on your a tight _____. Lossen up. But she and I both knew if I did my dad would kill me. I wish I could have know her in our Adult years. I will keep you in my prayers. Would love to meet you all one day. I am on Facebook, look me up. God Bless You all.

“ The thoughts and prayers of Ceredo-Kenova High School's Class of 1983 are with Andrea's family during this time. She is a fondly remembered classmate and especially honored when the story is told of her providing a well deserved smack upside the head to a much larger, smart alecky, male classmate. I was happy to hear from her several years ago near the time of a class reunion. We are all saddened to hear of her passing.

“To my Brother Franky. I am so sorry you have to go through this. I love you and will be there for you. I didn't get to know Ann that well because you lived in S.C. but she was always nice to me and I am sorry I will not have that chance now that you have moved back home. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
