“ Perry,
We just wanted you to know that we are truly sorry for your loss. You and your family are and will continue to be in our hearts and prayers. We never had the pleasure of meeting your mother but we're very certain she must have been a great lady.
Much love, Doug and Cindy

“Cheri and Perry,
You both have my deepest sympathies.
I know that you will feel the loss of your mother for some time and my suggestion is that when you do, think of an event/time when she and you had a good, no great time, and console yourself with that fond memory.
My best to you both.

May you, David and your sister remember the shared moments with your mom. Given the son she raised, she had to have been an incredible lady.

*Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers in the days to come.
Love you man....*
