“ I’m sorry for your loss, Paul and all your family members. Sharon, too. Brandon was a special boy, he was always smiling and laughing. He was a hugger, not just a hand shaker. I would seem to run into him often at Walmart, he never past me up, always stopped and spoke with me. I remember him coming to my church, Lighthouse Baptist and getting baptized. I’m gonna miss him and I’m sure he’s gonna be missed by a lot of other people who’s lift he touched. God bless your family.

“ I met Brandon when we were on the same football team. He and I became good friends. Our friendship continued on to this day and will continue on. I'm gonna miss you bro.
This is for you man; "Blackhawks in the house!!!" That was his favorite chant during our football days.
My prayers goes out to his family.

“ We loved Brandon so much. He came to our home on Sundays after church when he was in Parkersburg. He and our son Gavin became very close and we just adored him. He had the best smile ever. My heart breaks for his family he sure loved you all and talked about often. Much love and prayers of peace from our home to yours. Love Bryan and Charity Wise
