“ There was never a finer lady! Many memories of being in the home of her and Mr. Lansdale. Cubs outs, Boy Scouts or just walking thru the yard coming or going to school. She was always pleasant. Never would call me "Butch" but always Brady. I have the highest respect for her and I hurt for you all. Brady "Butch" Lipscomb

“ We were so sorry to hear of Mrs. Lansdales passing. We only met her a short time ago and she made such a lasting impression on us with her kind and gentle spirit. Her love for her friends and family was very evident. She was one very sweet lady. Such a shining example of how people should treat others around them. This lady was one class act.

Sincerely,
