“ So many great memories and laughs with the Adams’. He, like your mom, has now heard, “Enter in, my good and faithful servant.” Praying for you all.

“ So very sorry for your loss our condolences to the family. Charlie was our neighbor for over 30 years and his wife Karen was so sweet. We had many conversations over the years some good and some bad. Charlie took great care of her until she gained her angel wings. Now they will be reunited with our Savior Jesus Christ. Charlie loved his family and would help them any way he could. You will be greatly missed by your family, friends and neighbors. Rip Charlie 🙏
