“ Mike and I worked at Boy Scout camp for a couple of years. He was a friend to every single boy who came through the facility. Stephanie and the rest of the family, I was recounting some of the times with Mike and Tommy Campbell a few weeks ago to some co-workers. Loved me some "Carbide" Holman.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of Mike's passing. I knew Mike from my work at Marshall and I knew him as a true friend. He worked for me as a student and we shared many stories about our love for sports. He was just a great guy and my deepest sympathies are extended to his family on their loss.

“ *My sincere condolences to the Holman Family. It was just last September that I got to see Michael after more than a 60-year separation. His sister, Stephanie, orchestrated a meet-up between both of her brothers and my sister and me while I was in Huntington for a visit, as well as Rufus was there visiting. So glad to have had the opportunity to see him then.
I wish the family peace and blessings during this time of grieving.

“ Mike was my brother from another mother. He visited my family often. Fond memories of our all night card games on holidays. I had a stroke 3 years ago and was flown to Cabell Huntington. Mike was There as soon as he could get there. He told them that I was his sister. Our loss is Heaven's gain. I'll see Mike again Some Sweet Day. 🙏🙏😊
