“ As many of you know my mother Donna was the kindest, most gentle woman of her generation. Always forgiving to not only her family but also strangers, never holding a grudge. This often lead to my Dad and myself protecting her from harshness of the world we live in today. She was and is a true diamond of God's making. Being a spiritual powerhouse for Christ while maintaining her meekness and gentle nature was my mom's strongest attributes. When God used her people took notice. She was a special lady who was considerate of all people. We know she is at peace now and with Jesus, receiving her heavenly reward.
