“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

I missed you as I ordered lunch and as I kicked off my shoes when I get home, as I switched off the lights and climbed into bed for the night.
I missed you without tears or noise or fanfare.
But oh how I felt it.
I felt it in the morning, at lunchtime, in the evening and at night. I felt it as I woke, as I walked, as I worked. I felt it at home, on the road, in the light, in the dark, in the rain.
I felt it in every one of those moments, each one sitting heavier and heavier as the weight of the missing you kept growing and growing.

“Eric, this came too fast for you. I will never forget growing up with you at Hite Saunders all the way to Huntington High. We rocked out at your mom’s house in our first band with Cliff Sullivan, 'Bubble Head,' which sparked my love for the bass guitar—I’ve never put it down to this day. We snuck out at night and caused mischief in the neighborhood, camped in the woods, went fishing in the creek (a lot), and played in many baseball leagues. You were a good friend, man, and you deserved better. You, your family, and all our friends are in my thoughts.
