“ By reading the condolences, I found that brothers Bill and Bob were not mentioned in the obituary printed in the local paper. Evelyn did truly love and respect her brothers, as do all in the family. As shown in the Henson obit, they were mentioned in the original document submitted to Mr. Henson. With all respect to the brothers, I extend my regrets for the omission in the newspaper but don't know what caused it.

“ Hi - I am so sorry to hear about your Mother. I doubt that you remember me. My dad was Kelly Massie and we attended the 26th St. Church of Christ back in the 50's. Please accept my condolences at this sorrowful time in your lives. She has a much better life now. Sincerely, David Massie, Akron, Ohio

“ I'm so sorry that Aunt Evelyn has left us but I know she is in Heaven and finally at peace. I was able to visit with her twice in the hospital and we also had prayer together. I will always remember that as well as the many memories I have of her while I was growing up. I'm sorry that her brothers, my Dad and Uncle Bill, were not mentioned in her Obit but they both loved Evelyn so very much. They lost their sister and their hearts are broken. But we know that she is now rejoicing with the Lord and that gives us all comfort.
