Aunt Fuddy was so precious to me. As a little girl, I wanted to grow up and be just like her.

I will forever hold dear to me the homemade Christmas decorations, dolls she made, and my beautiful crocheted tablecloth. She was truly an angel on earth.

“ We loved Grandma Cotton. There are so many memories, but two stand out. We traveled together to Israel in 2008. What a joy it was to hear her sing in the stadium in Caesarea Maritime and see her face when she saw the Valley of Megiddo! Just last year when she and Becky stayed at our house in NC, she loved the pumpkin bread and eggnog I gave her for her bedtime snack. She'd say "yum yum" with each bite. She's one special lady and now she's where she's wanted to be for a long time, rejoicing with her Lord Jesus and loved ones.

“ The following was a song I use to hear her sing. She had such a beautiful soft voice. JAnd just maybe you'll read this song and remember her.

*You found me when I was so lonely
You found me when I was so sad
You found me when no one could help me
The best friend that I ever had
This site would allow much space*
