“ Brother Fudge meant a lot to me: he was the evangelist at First Baptist Church, Oneida, Tennessee, when I made a profession of faith in Christ in the 1970s. The last I knew, he was evangelizing on a reservation. Our family thought the world of him, and always loved it when he held revivals at our church. I am sorry for the family's loss.

Pastor Fudge was a good friend. He came to a church that I was pastoring in West Va once a year for a couple of years to preach a week of meetings. I attended a church he pastored in W.VA for a while before he went into evangelism. He was a big encouragement to me as a young pastor at that time.. My name is George Haithcock and I live in Wichita KS. I just now found out thru the internet that he had passed away some time back. I have wondered about him a number of times. He was a good friend and great preacher and pastor.

“ Dear Liz, Tim & Family, My heart breaks for you and pray God wraps his loving arms around you and keeps you close to him. Uncle Fred was a special man and not only my Dad's brother-in-law, but he was a dear friend and confident to him as well. Your parents were special people in my family and in our individual lives. And although we have lost the presence of a precious, God fearing Christian man, Heaven has gained a very special Angel. And we WILL see him again! Love to all, Tina Skaggs
