“ To Eva and Malek:

I offer my condolences on the passing of your grandfather and great-grandfather. Having just lost my grandfather in January, I know the pain you are feeling. I pray you have peace and comfort and that your happy memories of him will help you through this difficult time.

*Regards,
Jamie Ratliff*

“ Mr. Harris was a wonderful kind man. I enjoyed the time I would spend talking with him. He always had a smile and was ready to share the sunshine he had in his heart. Although I did not know him for very long he was very special to us all from the Edwards Comprehensive Cancer Center. I will miss him so very much. My prayers are with all of the family especially Summer who took so much time to care for him. God Bless you all.
