“ *Oretha, Ferrell, Smoky, and Glenda - David and I were so sad to hear last night of Glenn's passing, but we know he had a good long life and you all have many wonderful memories of him to comfort you. We also remember him - the rounds of golf played, the great dinners at your house, the garden - and we always think fondly of your family. Hugs and love to each of you and your family. “ Glenda I am very sorry about your loss of your Father. I understand where you are today because I lost my Mother three years ago tomorrow and Dad in 04'. My brother David passed last year. You will find the strength to move on and the memories will be wonderful dear. I have thought of you throughout the years. Take good care of yourself and write me when you get a chance. Love, Kathy
