“ I will always treasure the memories of visiting Aunt Glenna in Huntington, sharing genealogical quests, giggling about those giant family reunions, enjoying a hug. She often tucked a pressed pansy into a letter or card for me. Precious memories.

“ Aunt Glenn will be remembered by me as the kind and loving aunt that took me to church for the first time. I was 4 or 5 years old and spent the night with my cousins Mike and Judy. I loved the church experience and went home intent on convincing my own Dad and Mom to go to church. Dad and Mom listened to me back then, took their family to church and we all grew to love Jesus. I know that Aunt Glenn is where God intended her to be because the bible says “who so ever believes in me should not perish but have everlasting life”. Aunt Glenn is no longer with us but she is in a better place, because she believed and demonstrated her belief in God, she is in a place called heaven. It is a much better place than here and we all should be very glad for having had the opportunity to know a kind, loving and faithful woman, given to us by God, a blessing to us in every way. We will miss her but can rest knowing that she is where God intended her to be from the very time he created her back in 1924. I pray that God bless, comfort and strengthen all of Aunt Glenn’s family where ever they may be....in Jesus name Amen.
