“ I am so sorry for your loss. I'm glad she is no longer in pain though.
From the entire 2West staff at Cabell Huntington Hospital, she will be missed!

“ I last saw Kay when I visited her at Cabell Htgn Hospital
Kay was hooked up to every machine imaginable
I got to hear the story of her life Kay's appearance wasn't one of someone sick she was smiling
She spoke of her love for her family and her love, and faith in God
We had prayer together that day asking and believing in the power of God's healing
I told Kay she was so very lucky to have Jennifer, Candy, Tucker, and Courtney who tirelessly showed their love in caring for her with such an Exuberant manner
Kay's reply was they have always been there with me I couldn't fight this battle without them they have somehow made being sick joyful with them I'm never sad Kay's legacy of Love, Joy, Peace, Family, Friends and Contentment while battling Cancer is an example in my opinion for the world to follow
