

Gregory Pinkerman

June 18, 1953 - May 3, 2025

With deep sorrow and endless love, we share the passing of Greg Pinkerman, who left this world peacefully on May 3rd, 2025 after a courageous battle with esophageal adenocarcinoma. Greg was the heart of our family, steady, generous, and always ready with a classic dad joke. His humor was one of his greatest gifts, a gentle light that brought laughter even in the darkest moments. He had a way of making people feel seen, valued, and cared for often putting the needs of others before his own. His strength throughout his illness was a reflection of the way he lived: with grace, courage, and unwavering devotion to his family. He is survived by his wife Georgia Pinkerman, daughter Bianca Cloxton and her husband Zach along with three grandchildren; Jace, Zachary & Reagan - who will carry his memory in their hearts forever. His legacy lives on in the love he gave, the laughter he sparked, and the example he set. We are endlessly grateful for the time we had with him and will continue to honor his life by living with the same compassion and humor he shared so freely. Many thanks for those that assisted with his care especially Faith Freedom Health of Proctorville, OH (Jessica Perdue, FNP and Jason Hoover, R.N.) and Dr. David Ayers and B.J. Ayers R.N.) for their never ending concern and availability, Dr. William Makis of Canada, Dr. Mathew Rohrbach, Hospice of Huntington and a dear friend, Father Jim Sobus. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly asks that donations be made to The Divine Intervention P.O. Box 433 Huntington, WV 25709 in his memory. I'm so sad. I remember the countless hours playing poker with him where I stand as I type. He and Dad would always have that brotherly banter back and forth. I miss those times so much. He and Dad got under each other skin but you could see the love that they shared. He was by far my favorite uncle and a great role model. After Dad passed I did not see him as much as I should have. This happens in life. I used to see him at Walmart and he'd always ask me to go golfing. What a great man!!! He always talked about his family and what his grand kids were doing. I loved him and I will miss him.
