“ You and I were the best of friends back in highschool and major trouble makers. I'll never forget going to columbus to see a concert and riding up together and singing songs only for you to get in trouble and getting kicked out, I bet your mother had a meltdown over having to come all the way to columbus to pick you up! through all of the trouble we made you were still one of my best friends and we have so many memories together that I will cherish forever. You had the silliest laugh that is engrained in my brain forever and I will never forget it. RIP Harley

“ I went to middle school and high school with Harley. We weren't exactly close, but we saw each other a lot back then through our social groups. He was always so kind. He was and still is loved by everyone. He was a great person all around and I'm glad to have known him.
