

Henry Lambert

November 2, 1915 - December 24, 2012

Henry E. Lambert, 97, of Huntington, WV, formerly of Lavalette, WV, passed away, Monday, December 24, 2012, at Woodlands Retirement Community. He was born November 2, 1915, in Barboursville, WV the son of the late Frederick Bussey and Nannie (Peyton) Lambert. He is survived by his wife, Betty Cromwell Lambert of Huntington; a daughter, Donna Lambert Jones (Dr. Philip) of Peoria, IL; a son, John C. Lambert, MD (Beth) of Montrose, CO; three grandchildren, Dr. Amy Jones Hayworth (Matt), Dr. Alan Jones (Evelia), Ann Lambert Garrick (Chris) and five great-grandchildren. He was a graduate of Barboursville High School, retired from INCO Alloys, a member of Florence Memorial Methodist Church, and a member of the Wayne Masonic Lodge #18 AF & AM. He served in the U.S. Army in the 42nd Division during WWII and was a veteran of the Battle of the Bulge. Private arrangements have been made through Henson Mortuary, Barboursville, WV. Online condolences and memories may be shared with the family by visiting

Tribute Wall

“ Henry Lambert

October 23, 2023 at 01:49 AM

“ A wonderful man. When you look up gentleman in the dictionary you see his picture. I was honored to be able to present him with the Fred B. Lambert Award to him from the Lincoln County Geneology Society.

victoria bosley - January 10, 2013 at 12:09 PM

“ A wonderful man. When you look up gentleman in the dictionary you see his picture. I was honored to be able to present him with the Fred B. Lambert Award to him from the Lincoln County Geneology Society.

victoria bosley of Branchland, WV - January 10, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ My father was a member of the Wayne Lodge with Henry . I grew up in Lavalette so For my father my Deepest Sympothy. John Curry

John Curry - December 28, 2012 at 04:38 PM

“ My father was a member of the Wayne Lodge with Henry . I grew up in Lavalette so For my father my Deepest Sympothy. John Curry

John Curry of Boston Ma - December 28, 2012 at 12:00 AM

JD

“ So many wonderful memories...
His was a life well lived. He was always kind and gentle even though, as a member of the greatest generation, he served his country in combat in Europe in WWII.
Uncle Henry was the most welcoming person ever, and treated us like royalty when we came to visit.
He was deeply devoted to his church and to his family. He will be missed.

Joe, Mavel and Henry Drummond - December 26, 2012 at 07:47 PM

CH

“ I didn't personally know Mr. Lambert, but I just wanted to say that I am very sorry for your loss. I know that the pain is very difficult when you lose someone you're close to. I have lost some relatives that I was very close to, so I understand your pain. But there are some scriptures in the Bible that really helped me in those hard times. I hope that they will provide you with some comfort also:
Psalms 37:11,29 Isaiah 25:8 John 5:28,29 John 11:25 Acts 24:15 Revelation 21:4

Cheyenne - December 26, 2012 at 01:02 PM

CW

“ I didn't personally know Mr. Lambert, but I just wanted to say that I am very sorry for your loss. I know that the pain is very difficult when you lose someone you're close to. I have lost some relatives that I was very close to, so I understand your pain. But there are some scriptures in the Bible that really helped me in those hard times. I hope that they will provide you with some comfort also:
Psalms 37:11,29 Isaiah 25:8 John 5:28,29 John 11:25 Acts 24:15 Revelation 21:4

Cheyenne of Lincoln County, WV - December 26, 2012 at 12:00 AM

JF

“ So many wonderful memories...His was a life well lived. He was always kind and gentle even though, as a member of the greatest generation, he served his country in combat in Europe in WWII. Uncle Henry was the most welcoming person ever, and treated us like royalty when we came to visit.He was deeply devoted to his church and to his family. He will be missed.

Joe, Mavel and Henry Drummond of Brandon, FL - December 26, 2012 at 12:00 AM