“ "Well done, thou good and faithful servant..." Homer epitomized the good and faithful servant. I am proud to call him friend and co-laborer. His passing has left a huge hole in the Huntington Downtown Lions Club. I've been blessed by his presence, humor and example of what Lionism should be. I am an American citizen, God help me to preserve Liberty, Intelligence and Our Nation's Safety - WE SERVE!

“Homer Sr. and my Aunt Audrey were my great Aunt and Uncle. So sorry of hearing this sad news. I fondly remember Sunday afternoon visits to St. Albans, I was very young, however, It took nothing to get me to take the hot, humid rides down rt. 60 for a visit. May God bless Homer jr. (my grandmother, on my Mother's side ,Ruth Hager, and Phyllis would love to talk on the phone together, Ruth was from Proctorville). May God bless all of you during this time of sadness, Al Jimison

“When I was just a pup in the life insurance business, Homer was my role model and LUTC teacher. If Homer said I should do something, I did it. When I archived any number of company and industry recognition levels, next to my family, Homer was the one with whome I wanted to share the joy. I haven't seen Homer In a number of years, as we now are retired in AZ, but I'll miss Him just the same. Homer, Hail and Farewell! blessings and prayers for your family. David E. Brunk, CLU, ChFC
