“ Ina, I was sorry to read of the passing of Homer. Keeping you in my thoughts and prayers. You may not remember me but I am Marsha who worked years ago dispatching for the Sheriffs Department and I called you and Homer all the time for towing services and yes I was one of the girls that woke you up in the middle of the night.. I will always remember Homer's beautiful smile and his kindness each time we spoke as well as yours also. I pray for peace for you through this trying time and the days ahead. Marsha Ball Chastain
