“ I have seldom spent time with my cousin Wayne since I joined the Navy in 1947, and spent 30 years of a Navy career away from West Virginia, however he and his parents and sibling spent some time with us in the mid-40's, so I know Wayne well. I know that his mother was an angel so he will be in good company as he rests with our eternal father.

“ Wayne was a role model for any Christian. He was a good father, grandfather, husband and friend. There is a heavenly home where he now resides with Jesus and the Holy Hosts. May God comfort Maggie and all of Wayne's immediate and extended family and friends with the knowledge that he no longer suffers but is in paradise waiting for them.
