“ Dan, I dread reading about the parents of my schoolmates passing since I know mine too are elderly and could go at any time. Can't say I know how you feel, but surely know it must be horribly lonely. Just know I'm thinking of you (and your wife) and remembering better days when we were much younger. God bless.

“ Our deepest sympathies are sent to the family and friends during this most difficult time. May the knowledge that she is now in a better place give some comfort. And as you ponder your lives together, "... don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened."
