December 15, 1924 - April 27, 2015

Jack F. Kyle, born on December 15, 1924 in Belle Vernon, PA. to Fred and Martha Kyle. Jack just celebrated his 90th birthday with a festive party surrounded by family and friends. He lived a very full life of many activities and accomplishments. Jack married his high school sweetheart, Grace Wells in 1944, and they eventually shared almost 60 years together before her death in 2002. After serving in the Army Air Corps during WWII, he began his career in the steel industry, first with U.S. Steel in Pittsburg, PA and then with W.Va. Steel and Manufacturing in Huntington, W.Va. (later Connors Steel Division of HK Porter Co and then Steel of W.Va.) He retired as Manager of Sales for Steel of W.Va. Jack participated extensively as a member of Rotary. He served terms as treasurer and secretary and was made an honorary member for his many years of service. An avid golfer, he enjoyed playing many well-known courses during the travels he and Grace made as well as at both Spring Valley and Guyan Country Club where they were members. He was particularly proud of making three holes-in-one! Jack enjoyed traveling to many locations across the U.S. as well as to Hawaii and Alaska. He also enjoyed three trips to Paris France and especially valued his visit to Normandy. Jack gave back to his community in many ways. After training, he worked on the helpline for Contact, took part in several service activities through Rotary, and was ever-willing to volunteer for anything his daughters asked. Jack and his family were long time members of Enslow Park Presbyterian Church. More recently, he became a member of Kuhn

Presbyterian Church, where he served as an elder and became an active part of the church community. Left to cherish his memory are daughters, Diane Kyle of Louisville, KY, Joanne Brooks (Ben) of Westerville, OH, Kathy Fisher (Steve) of Huntington, W.Va.; grandchildren, Jason Brooks (Stacey), Joshua Brooks, Chad Fisher (Molly) and Lori Reynolds (Adam); great-grandchildren, Kylie Fisher, Kennedy Fisher, Cameron Brooks, Jack Brooks, Cole Reynolds and Cami Reynolds; brother, Ted Kyle (Billye); nephew, Frank Kyle and a dear friend, Clara Rose Sadler. “ To Jack's family and Ms. Clara, My daughter Joy and I met a friend for life when we lived in Wyngate a few years ago. He was the kindest of souls and I could listen to him talk for hours. Loved hearing his stories and advice on life. He was always so excited to see Joy and the feeling was mutual on her part. We will miss him so much. All our love, Tamara and Joy Bauer

“ To the Kyle Family and special friend Clara Rose, I have been a friend of Jack for almost forty years. I valued his friendship highly and spent many happy times with him. He was a consistent and faithful friend. For many years Dick Weilding, Howard Summers and I played as a golf foursome at Guyan. I will never forget inviting him to join our threesome on his first day he played at Guyan. From there we became fast friends. He will be truly missed by Phyllis and I and by all of his many friends. God bless his Family..
