“ I believe I was around five when Dad married my mom and he became my Dad. He raised me for as long I could remember. My biological father died when I was two and I don't remember him. Jim, Dad was all I ever known. I will never forget our wonderful trips to West Virginia to see the rest of the family and the long car rides and me and my sister complaining of his cigarette smoke which I now miss. I miss listening to his music. I miss being around him. I love how much he was apart of Kaiya's life his grand baby. They love each other so much. We would of been to your funeral Dad if given the chance. I wish someone had told us. Thank you for taking care of me, raising me. Kaiya prays every day that you are having a great time in heaven. Thank you for keeping in touch with us when you moved to Colorado and talking to Kaiya and always liking her photos on Facebook. We love and miss you Pop Pop, my Dad Rest In Peace Daddy
