“ The loss of a friend is always difficult ... and when it is a close friendship of 75+ years, it leaves a great hole in one's life. We will miss him terribly. Jim had the rare gift of being able to relate to people on any level and whatever their circumstances or station in life. He has been a positive influence on so many throughout his life as teacher, mentor, counselor, brother in Christ, and friend. Our hearts and prayers are with his beloved Adalyn and the children and grandchildren he adored. -- Jack & SweetPea --

“ My deepest condolences to a wonderful family. Jim will always hold a special place in my heart, as it was a pleasure and a privilege to be part of his life. We had some great talks, and he was always quite the storyteller. You are in my prayers in this difficult time, but I find comfort in knowing that Alzheimer's is no longer the ruler of Jim's body, the Good Lord is. That is a blessing. Love to you all.

“ Sorry for your loss. We remember our visit to Elder Bro. James' home back in the late 80's. He and his wife allowed us to spend the night in their home and treated us just like their own children. They are just down to earth kind Christians and such servants of mankind that the world is left a much better place because of Elder Bro. James. R.I.P.

“ I was never privileged to meet this wonderful man, however, knowing his oldest son, daughter-in-law, their children, and precious great grandchild, I know the kind of man he must have been! Just reading this and knowing some of the family he leaves behind, I am saddened for them and in awe of the wonderful things he accomplished. Matthew 7:16... Ye shall know them by their fruits.
