“ I worked with Cap at the Charleston Mack & Dave's. He was a very caring person and manager. He had a great sense of humor! Oh yeah, and an awesome story teller. He was very supportive in helping me build a band instrument department and band instrument rentals to school beginner programs throughout WV.

“ Both of my parents passed away in 2007, which created a huge gap in my life. I started calling Uncle Cap regularly, which helped fill that gap. He and I connected with each other regularly since then. He was a Father figure to me, always willing to listen, particularly when I was experiencing tough times. "Hang in there", he would say, "If you can't control it, stop trying to hit it or kick it, just forget about it". I always left our conversations inspired and feeling better about myself. I loved him very much and will deeply miss him. I take comfort in knowing he is in Heaven, feeling healthy and happy. God bless you Aunt Joyce and your family in this difficult time. You remain in my prayers.

“ Uncle Happy was my favorite uncle. I could always count on him for any support needed. He was also an excellent role model for me all his life. He was a very loving Christian man. My children and I will miss his presence in our lives immensely! Until we meet again, Judy Hatfield and Poston Family
