“ Jim and I could talk music for hours.
Even if you were having a crappy day, just talking to him made it a better one. Yes the world did definitely lose a great one.
Prayers to his family.

“ What a wonderful person Jim was i worked with him at special metals and I'm 100% sure there's not a person there that has ever said a bad word about him! That says a lot about a man! Even though I've never met his family he talked about his wife and children and it was apparent to everyone around him he loved you all so much! I'm sure this world will be a little dimmer without him in it! But heaven is a lot brighter!
