“ There's a corner up in heaven Where the little babies play, And our Blessed Mother watches All throughout the live long day. They're a happy lot, these babies Sure the reason's very plain For they've missed the world's contagion, Came unscathed, without it's pain. 'Tis an angel band they call them And you both should happy be You're the parents of an angel 'Cause your baby's there you see. Yes, and smiling down upon you With an innocent sublime: Waiting: watching for the parents He will meet again in time. You should never be rebellious Rather thank a loving God For your little guardian angel As along life's way you plod, With a faith that never falters Claspings each the other's hand Pledge yourselves to meet your baby In that better happy land.
