“ Though we didn't run in the same circle of friends Jeremy was "One of the Good Guys" no matter who you were he displayed genuineness. Being in the same class of '97 to know him you can't help but smile. May you All, his family & friends, find comfort in all of the loving and fun memories you hold dear.

“ I have so, so many memories with Jeremy but my favorite is when we were teenagers and I came over to the house for the first time.

Gladys took one look at me and said it was nice to see me again and that she was glad that Jeremy and I were still friends.

"STILL friends??" We both said in unison.

Then Gladys went and got a photo album to prove it to us.

We had played on the same little league baseball team and had in fact already been friends when we were like ten years old.

Our friendship was inevitable.
