

Joan Browning Sharp

February 17, 1929 - January 13, 2022

Joan Browning Sharp, wife of Leslie C. (John) Sharp of Barboursville, died peacefully on January 13, 2022 after a long illness. She was born on February 17, 1929 in Huntington, WV, the daughter of the late Roy A. and Ruth Sanford Browning. She was preceded in death by her sister, Jacqueline Browning Bush. In addition to her husband of 71 ½ years, she is survived by her children: Rev. Catherine Sharp George of Albemarle, NC; Rev. Paul Thomas Sharp (Amy) of Huntington; John Duane Sharp (Cheryl) of Huntington; and Leslee Sharp Cassidy of Barboursville; 10 grandchildren; and 7 great-grandchildren with a new great-granddaughter due in the late summer. Joan was a 1947 graduate of Barboursville High School where she played saxophone in the band and she would happily share great stories of band escapades. She attended Marshall University and Huntington School of Business Machines. She was a life-long member of Kuhn Memorial Presbyterian Church in Barboursville where she served as an elder, deacon, choir member, and Bible study leader. She also received a life time membership in the Presbyterian Women. She loved the beach and excelled at finding shark's teeth. Joan loved music, playing bridge, quilting, knitting, fishing, reading, bowling, and could often guess the Wheel of Fortune answer before the contestants or her family members. She loved to cook and her love language was feeding you when you came to visit. Her family gives thanks for her life and for the many times she made them go to Sunday school and church. They are grateful for all of the ways she mothered them and are especially grateful that her baptism is now complete in her death. A private family gathering Mother's Day weekend at the family farm will celebrate her life and faith. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to Kuhn Memorial Presbyterian Church or the animal rescue facility of your choice. Henson and Kitchen Mortuary 6357 E. Pea Ridge Rd. Huntington, WV near Barboursville is caring for the family. www.hensonandkitchen.com
