

John Gordon Burnside

January 5, 1943 - April 18, 2025

It is with sadness in our hearts, but overwhelming joy in our souls, that we announce the Homegoing of John Gordon Burnside of Proctorville, Ohio on April 18th, 2025, at the age of 82. John was blessed to have met the love of his life, Nancy Fazio, at the age of 14 and spent the next 67 years devoted to her happiness as both boyfriend and husband. In addition to his wife, he is survived by John David Burnside (Edith) of Parma, OH and Christi Lynn Brummitt (Mike) of Proctorville, OH; three granddaughters, five great-grandchildren and a host of fiends. A beautiful blend of kindness, humility and determination, John was dedicated to living out his Christian faith and inspiring others, especially young people, to do the same. His service to God and his Church led John to teach Sunday School, serve as a long-time Deacon and lead several Royal Ranger Outposts. During his spare time, he was an avid fisherman, golfer and unlucky hunter. Although his failure to bring home a deer was more likely due to the avid prayers of his daughter who favored the deer. John retired as an accounting supervisor after 40 years from American Electric Power where his appreciation of people earned him the respect of all those who worked with him. Funeral services will be conducted at 12:00 PM on Saturday, April 26, 2025 at Henson and Kitchen Mortuary and Cremation Services 6357 E. Pea Ridge Rd. Huntington, WV near Barboursville with Pastors Mike Pierce, Joe Ratliff and Phil Dunn officiating. Burial will follow at Rome-Proctorville Cemetery, Proctorville, OH. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made towards the new church building fund for the Refinery using the <https://www.therefinerychurch.net/roomformore>
