“ Juanita was definitely a friend of mine for many years here at Marshall. She would always check in with me about my life and my kids and then we talked about her daughter Danielle. I will miss those chats most and that sarcastic wit that we bonded over. I will see you again sweet friend, until then.

“ *Danielle, Josh, and family,
I'm so sorry I won't be in town Friday to share in memorializing Juanita. She was someone we could count on to ably navigate state systems and processes, but competence at work was a secondary talent to her. Her family was number one, and whenever I encountered her on campus our conversation always moved to her pride in her daughter. You have made her proud, Danielle. There are no words that can make sense of this loss. My sympathies.*
