Kathy was a very dear friend for many years. We met in 1986 when she joined CFS & the rest was history. Being 5 years younger than Kath, I leaned on her life experience in coming of age. Kathy made it so easy to talk to her. She was quite gregarious, quick witted, personable and a great protector & big sister personality who lived, laughed and loved deeply. I loved taking lunch breaks with her when we both worked in the Chrysler Building on the 24th Fl for Shaw Walker. Every time guys would see us together, they'd always comment about us being tall glasses of water, Ebony & Ivory. We lost touch when she moved out of NY to her new home in WV. I am so very sorry to hear she left here without me having the opportunity to say goodbye to my dear beloved friend Kathy. It was even more tragic finding out her husband Tony, left here this year as well. My most sincere condolences to The O'Gradys and Santostefano families. I remember when she FINALLY married the love of her life — Tony, I told her, "now your last name officially matches your beautiful Italian looks". Lastly, I pray her little brother Pat, who she was so very protective of and doted over, knows how very much his big sister loved him & talked about him so very much. If anyone knows how I can reach Pat O'Grady, please call me at (917)449-1403. I am quite devastated by this new reality. God bless ❤️💕🙏😭😭

“ I just found out that kathy has passed away, i knew her from Macy's , i went to Macy's yesterday , i was looking for her and a salesman told me what happened, i could'nt beleive it. i met her about 6 months ago, we always talked and laughed as she rang up my purchases, we called each other friend, she told me about her life in New York and i always teased her about moving here, she laughed. I'm going to miss her and our talks. Kathy was such a sweet person, i already miss my friend, Macy's will not be the same without her.

“ My beautiful sister Kathleen O’Grady.. from the moment I was able to comprehend you were my sibling, my only sister, you made sure you took it upon yourself to protect me, love me, teach me, and make me see that life was filled with hope, and love. All you ever wanted for me was to feel at peace and to be loved and appreciated.

Your wisdom and your compassion you had for me, Tom, mommy and daddy, is locked away inside my heart and soul forever.

I loved ever second of our time together. You made me laugh, made me not to take myself to seriously. You always told me my dream of becoming a fireman would come true, it certainly did. I owe my determination and courage to you my sister.. I know of no other person who stood by my side, decade after decade, more than you. Of course Tom but a sister’s love is priceless so precious.

I will miss the special way you always spoke to me, so caring and softly. I’ll miss having lunch with you in Manhattan most of all... boy Moe, didn’t we have so much fun all those years?! You always treated Kat, because you were soo kind to me. God has called you home for reasons I cannot comprehend right now. I know Tom was waiting for you. As our big brother always protected you and I. I will take care of mommy and make sure nothing happens to her. I will also be kind and true and not dishonor myself. Like you asked me not to.

This is not goodbye my wonderful sister.. as grandma would always say.. “don’t say goodbye, because goodbyes are forever.. just say I’ll see you soon” I will carry your essence inside my soul.. love you for all eternity.. your baby brother Patrick

“ To my beautiful Aunt Kathy, My family and I are so deeply saddened and devastated by your passing and we will miss you dearly. I wish we had more time to see you again.

I will always remember you for your thoughtfulness and loving my family. You were always so thoughtful and caring especially towards my kids Brandon, Rachel and Hannah and you have always been such a wonderful aunt and dear friend. Your great sense of humor always made me laugh. We shared so many wonderful times and stories together surrounded by family. Brandon, Rachel and Hannah have expressed how much they will miss you and they will always remember your visits Upstate. I also will cherish the great memories we made having dinner together at your favorite Italian restaurant in NYC. I also will always hold dear my weekend visits with you and Uncle Tony in Westbury through the years. I will always cherish our family gatherings at Grandma and Grandpa's house in Medford as well. I wish I had one last time to visit with you and Uncle Tony in West Virginia.

“ Our hearts ache for Aunt Kathy. It is very clear how she touched so many lives, all in different ways. But common threads were her love to make people laugh, sharing/talking about the things she loved, her devotion to family and friends, and ever lasting memories each of us hold for her. In time we will be comforted by her gift of these special memories, and even smile again when we think of her laugh. Aunt Kathy you are very loved, and deeply missed. -Frank & Maria

“ When I first met Kathy, over 30 years ago, I was so amazed by her. I thought she was beautiful and so full of life. She had a contagious laugh and smile. I wish that I had a lot of memories of her, only a few but they mean so much. You touched so many people and your family loves you more than you know. I always admired the love between you and Uncle Tony. You were such a sweet couple and you cared so much for each other. My heart breaks for him - you were the light of his life. You were taken from us too soon - you had so much life to give. I hope you are with the family and are watching over all of us. Love you very much.

“ Aunt Kathy, I hate that you're gone. I cry the most about the memories we will never get to make together, the experiences not yet shared. But after I cry, I smile, and even laugh over the times we DID share, all the funny things you have done and said. Though we didn't do nearly as much together as I had wanted, I'm so happy to be able to look back at all we experienced together.

Even before we ever met in person, I just KNOW you were the one who told Uncle Tony which dolls to get me and Renée for Christmas when we were little- Cabbage Patch Kids, baby! You knew what was what. ;)

When we were high school age, as my sister said, you took us out on the town. (You always loved having outings with your nieces -- and great-nieces.) You showed us your favorite diner and we had lunch, just the 3 of us. You had us try your favorite meal, and it was good! I kept a matchbook from that place for years and years so that I would always remember it.

Then we rode the subway into Manhattan where you worked. You defended my honor when a grumpy old lady acted like I was going to steal her purse, hahaha. (I think she was scared! You were about a foot taller than her.)

We felt like big stuff, walking around the City, having sodas at the downtown pub where you used to meet up with your coworkers for a bite. That was the first time we heard "Simply Having Wonderful Christmastime," and you thought it was so funny how we thought it was so lame! We didn't even have to do anything there. You knew we would just enjoy the experience of hanging out where the locals went in downtown NYC.

Years and years later, you did something similar for my own two girls when you'd take them to the mall for the day, having lunch, watching a movie, going nuts in the candy store, and perusing purses and headbands at Claire's. Girl stuff.

We were just giggling today over the time we went to see Madagascar 3 together and how much you loved the zebra - "Circus afro!" You couldn't stop singing it all afternoon!

I'm remembering all the birthday lunches in your colorful kitchen, the birthday outfits you bought them when they turned 9. They felt so pretty.

And you were so patient with them when they thought they were doing you a favor and cut all the tags off your Ty Beanie Babies when you first moved here!!

And, man! You knew how to cook! I loved your meat sauce.

I loved how you loved Little House on the Prairie and had a collection of different versions of A Christmas Carol. It said a lot about your heart. You loved your Christmas lights and decorations- they made you so happy as you showed all the little trinkets to the children. You got me drinking fruit-infused water, and every time I put my purse on a table, I heard your voice and saw your eyes telling me that you NEVER put your "bag" on the table.

Your kisses were the biggest. And though your temper could get pretty big at times, your caring heart was even bigger. It was the best gift this past Christmas when for some reason you were just extra happy and bubbly and going around spending special time with each person. You were crying happy tears and telling each of us how you felt so loved, how happy you were to have family around you, and how much you loved each of us. You had a heart-to-heart with my girls that they will never forget. And you FINALLY ate my cookies and tiramisu!! It's silly, but it meant so much to me since you were always watching what you ate before and wouldn't try things. But this time you didn't hesitate. And you just enjoyed it so much. Again, it's silly, but it blessed me. You were doing things like that all night, just cutting loose and wearing your heart on your sleeve, giving and receiving love freely. And that is my favorite memory of all.

It's so hard to say goodbye, Aunt Kathy. I don't want to. But since we are at this juncture where we must part, I go forward cherishing you in my heart.

I love you so much.

*Until later,
Gina*

“ MY BEAUTIFUL VIVACIOUS GOD-AUNTIE ONE OF THE MOST FUN, LOVING, GENEROUS WOMEN I KNOW!! Unforgettable memories but one of my best is the night on the town in the Big Apple with my lil sis and my Auntie living it up at Christmas time going to eat Penne then the mall and subway where she held my hand so tight and locked arms with me protecting me like a mama bear from the crazy subwayers and then the ultimate Radio City Music Hall! But still yet too many good memories to even begin. Always the one where I'm flying first class to NY to bring these two Godparents home to us for good in WV driving two dogs and one Siamese cat home! What a ride!! And One of the most special last ones seeing her sit down and one-on-one, eye to eye with my littlest baby Natane sitting alone at the party and she comes just to her seat just to talk and let her know she sees her! She loves her! And that she's special too! Always my Aunt Kathy's mission. Let us know we're special to her! With a kiss and a squeeze so amazing. You're waiting for us now! I LOVE YOU my Auntie!! I LOVE YOU my Uncle Tony!!

“ Aunt Kathy, you were (and are) loved by SO many. You had a tough exterior, but inside was such a loving, generous heart. You made sure those close to your heart knew how dear you held them. Thank you for always being there; I'll never forget the good times, laughs, and conversations we shared. I love you and will miss you forever.
