

Kimberly Sluss

September 16, 1959 - September 9, 2016

Kimberly "Kim" Courtney Sluss, 56, of Scott Depot, W.Va. passed away, Friday, September 9, 2016. She was born September 16, 1959 in Cumberland, MD. the daughter of the late, Darrell W. "Buddy" Courtney and Alma Wertman. She was Deputy Putnam County Clerk, a graduate of Keyser High School, attended Potomac State College and Marshall University. In addition to her parents, she was also preceded in death by her in-laws, Al L. and Joan Sluss of Fort Ashby, W.Va; her grandparents, Ellison and Rose Courtney and John and Frances Wertman.

Kim loved life to the fullest and enjoyed riding on the motorcycle with Steve, as well as visiting local wineries, unique local restaurants and state parks. She especially loved to vacation in the Smoky Mountains of Tennessee. She was an active member of the Greater Federation of Women's Club (GFWC) of Charleston and the GFWC Capital Club. She was looking forward to being "Mimi" to twins Connor and Owen Wing who are due in January. She is survived by her husband of nearly 36 years, Stephen C. Sluss of Scott Depot, W.Va; her son, Michael Sluss of Hurricane, W.Va., and her daughter, Amanda Wing and husband Matt of Frederick, MD; sisters, Tina Hall of Pinellas Park, FL, Amy Cook and her husband Josh, and Samantha Courtney all of Morgantown, W.Va; brothers, Darrell "Craig" Courtney and his wife Yevette of Antioch, W.Va. and John E. Courtney of Pinellas Park, Fl; sister-in-law, Karen (Sluss) Graziano and her husband Mike of Palmyra, VA; step-mother, Barbara Courtney of Boston, MA, and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins whom she loved very much.

Funeral services will be conducted at 7:30 PM on Tuesday, September 13, 2016 at Henson & Kitchen Mortuary, 6357 E. Pea Ridge Road, Huntington, W.Va. with Rev. Daniel Kimble officiating. The family will receive friends from 6:00 PM until service time on Tuesday at the mortuary. A separate memorial service will be held at a later date in Mineral County for her friends and family there. “ Dear Steve, Please accept our sincere condolences in the loss of your lovely wife, Kim, and your mother. We can't even begin to imagine how difficult this all must be for you and your family. Our prayers and thoughts are with you and hope somehow you will find peace with all of this. Just remember you are surrounded by hundreds of people who care about you, as well as, as our Heavenly Father, who has called your loved ones home. You will one day join them---and what a wonderful reunion this will be. God Bless you. Barry and Linda “ Praying for God to bring comfort and strength to my dear cousin's husband, children, and family. So hard to believe, let alone understand. I am so thankful for childhood memories of Kim when we were growing up. FB and reunions helped us keep in touch. Her bright smile and spirit were unlike any other. Love you Kimmie. Go Rest High on that Mountain!

“ I am still in shock over Kim's passing. I so enjoyed the couple of times we were able to visit together when I was in Charleston and the greatness of Facebook to keep us connected. I will cherish those memories. Reconnecting after many years was a blessing. My heart aches for you, Steve, and your children. I know you have many memories to cherish and she will always be a part of each of you. Prayers for you all. Will look forward to celebrating a life well lived when you come home for her memorial service.

“ To Steve and Children: You have my deepest sympathy with the loss of your sweet Kim. I never had the honor to meet her, or any of you, but through Facebook, I feel I have known you all my life. It is easy to see Kim's personality and character. I've never seen a picture of her that she was not smiling, so I am sure she is smiling in heaven now. Her Homecoming is such a shock that at first, I thought it was a joke and then I smacked myself for I knew Steve, being a Sluss jokester, would never ever joke about that. And reading on, I really hoped it was a joke. in the less than 24 hours since I heard, I have continuously had you all on my heart, including the twins to be born in January. It is my extreme loss to have never met Kim in person, but hopefully someday, she'll walk up to me in heaven and say hey girl, so you're another one of those Slusses, huh? There are no sufficient words to comfort your family, but know you are much loved and much prayed for. With deep love and condolences from a Sluss cousin, Sherry.
