“ We have not been sure the best way to get in touch with you, but we hope that somehow you know you have been in our thoughts and prayers for a long time now. We hated that we were not able to see your Dad very much in the last couple of years, especially after the pandemic began, but we always thought so much of him, and enjoyed visiting with him, even when he had moved into the Inn at Wyngate.

When we first moved to Beverly Court back in 1976, your Mom and Dad were the first people that we knew. They were the ones who made us feel welcome here, and we soon learned that their front porch was the place to go if you wanted to know what was going on in the neighborhood or just get to know your neighbors a little better. Many happy evening hours were spent there, and we will always remember them.

We can vouch that what was written in his obituary about Larry being a kind-hearted neighbor and friend was certainly true from our perspective. Our lives were better for having known him, and we will miss him greatly.

Thank you both so much. Tim & I were the only ones there but it was beautiful. The Navy honor guard & taps being played & a Navy chaplain & beautiful weather made this a beautiful cherished send off for my dad. After the service , Tim & I drove around the old neighborhood. I even took a pic of our old house! You were wonderful neighbors to Mom & Dad, and me when I stayed down at the house. I.pray that all of you are in good (at least ok) health & spirits! Thank you so much.

“ I just wanted to say how sorry I was to hear of Larry's passing. Your mom and dad and my mom and dad were so close over the years. Hard to believe there all gone on. Your dad was a great man.

Thank you so much, Kippy! Tim & I were talking about you & Tommy when we passed your grandfather's house on the way to Ritter Park. I certainly remember all of us visiting your family in Procterville when we were younger. You guys had David & Tim to go outside and play. I was stuck with your mom & mine in the house!! Thank you so much & Tommy & you have a peaceful, loving life. Cindy Hawthorne Patterson

“ It seems just yesterday all of us were on Mom and Dad's porch, sharing stories as neighbors and friends dropped by. One of the last memories of us on the porch was when Sandy Fletcher stopped by to visit Mom. Dad got up from the bench swing we had in the front yard so that Sandy could sit beside Mom. They began swinging, and on the forward thrust, the back of the swing gave way and abruptly whipped to the ground -- heels over heads, prominent derrières quivered with laughter.

Dad's pose and laughter in this photo retells this story, and many others. We miss Dad and Mom and the ole house (one of the first on Beverly Dr. and Court). We had a wonderful, fulfilled upbringing there with Mom and Dad.
