Uncle Lawas was such a fine man. He and my aunt Betty Joy (DoeDoe to us, don't ask me why) were always a stunning couple-breathtakingly gorgeous in body and spirit. They welcomed me at 16, with open arms, into their home, no questions asked. I needed a safe haven and they gave me one. I don't believe a verbal thank you would have sufficed but they taught me what a loving marriage looked like and it guided me to my own. The world was made a better place by the life of Lawas Lee McClure.
