“ To All the Griffith and McClure families, please accept my sincere condolences. I have know Pug all my life and i have very fond memories spending time at her lovely home during summers of my childhood. I would sleep overs with Bobby,Debbie, and Lisa. We would get up in the morning and she would be in the kitchen making cinnamon toast. The only thing I remember most about Pug was what a wonderful Mother she was and how very deeply she loved her children. She was very Much loved by all who knew her and will be missed. May her memory bring comfort to her intimate family and siblings.
