“ *Dear Miller Family,
Although I was young when I lived across the street, years ago. I still can remember Louise's kindness. After we moved we still came back and visited. My sister, Martha, stayed in touch through the years. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Our sister, Linda, was there to greet Louise in Heaven.*

“ Oh the memories are so many. Staying with her in the summer month's growing up to her coming to my house to visit " the twins" when they were born in 1987. And the sunday dinners at mawmaw Skeens house when they would come visit. When ever I was in Huntington I would always stop to visit just to let her know I cared and loved her. My mom and her were close sisters. Join the family now and be happy with all the Tolleys.
