“ What a shock to lose this precious sister. Linda was pure sweetness all the time. When I think of the pandemic and the separation it caused among so many of us then to arrive out of it without so many close friends and loved ones is sad to say the least. You are missed, dear Linda! I love you and look forward to reuniting with joy!

“ This is my mother-in-law, my Second Mama, who wanted me as her daughter-in-law long before it became a reality, who prayed for me, spoke up for me, believed in me and accepted me, who loved me. She has stepped out of this realm into the presence of her precious Lord Jesus. It was sudden, and we're really still trying to wrap our heads around it. We want you here with us, Mom - so bad! I can't fathom life here without her.

She has been such an important and present part of our lives from the start - a hands-on Mamaw and Mom, giving, helping, rescuing, encouraging, and fighting for us on her knees. So beautiful, so young-looking and dazzling, especially in your gold and black. So talented with a needle and thread and an eye for decorating. And she could cook - "enough for Cox's army!" and in "2 shakes of a lamb's tail," too! Her country cooking always hit the spot, and she was so happy to whip up a feast for us on Sundays and holidays. But what drew me to her, even before I was drawn to Chad, was her praise! When the presence of God came upon her, watch out, devil! She would lift up a praise with all that was within her, no shame, no intimidation. Man, what a woman!

Death stinks. I will be so happy to see her once again in my Father's house and throw my arms around her neck and kiss her precious cheek once again.

I will miss our walks and our mountain getaways, our girls' nights and taco dinners, and our fussing and planning over our beloved babies.

Mom, you loved us well.

You prayed your husband out of the lion's den in Vietnam.

You prayed my husband into life and kept Him for the Lord.

You were Ginger and Lily's friend and champion and "Holy jolly" Mamaw.

You were the best mother-in-law a girl could ever ask for.

I love you forever. ❤️

“ I am so very sorry we lost Linda. She was one of the most beautiful people I had ever known. There's not enough words to describe this beautiful lady. She was a breath of sunshine when she walked in the room. She was a true christian of every letter of the word. She was such a positive woman, Always happy, easy to talk to. Someone you just enjoyed being around . I have missed her the moment I heard the news and will always miss her. She was so loved by her husband and son and family.I love you Linda. Your where you lived to be and that is Heaven.

“ Linda I will never forget you and your sweet presence! I think my fondest memory with you was this joke we shared together; I never saw you laugh harder than that moment, and I chuckle just thinking about it.
We love you.

“ Linda was such a bright light to everyone that knew her! She always greeted you with the biggest smile and just so much warmth. She was a ray of sunshine and positivity! Linda was always quick to remind you of prayer requests and the first to offer you prayer when you needed it. She was an absolute walking testimony of Christian faith! I truly enjoyed my time with Linda while working together at Thornburg Agency and I'm so thankful I got to know her. She is greatly missed by us all – it just won't be the same without her. Deepest condolences to Jim, Chad, her precious granddaughters and all of her family. She loved each of you endlessly & spoke of you often!

“ Dear Jim, Chad & Family: I have known Linda since first grade, shared her name and used to sit beside her on the bus singing! She had a sweet disposition and a caring, loving spirit. Her family was her life. She loved her family and her God with her whole heart. I know she is in Heaven, walking with God and smiling that beautiful smile. May her family and friends find comfort in knowing she is pain free and whole now.

“ So saddened to hear this. Linda and I graduated together and I must say she was the sweetest person I've ever known. That smile was always on her face. She could light up a room with it. I looked so forward to seeing her every year at our class reunions. So very sorry for your loss. She will be missed.

“ I thoroughly enjoyed my time getting to know Linda here at Thornburg Insurance Agency. I will always remember her as a woman who carried herself with such poise and manners. She had values that seem lost in today's world. She will be greatly missed and I feel fortunate for the time I worked along side of her. Warmest Regards - Ryan Wingrove

“ I am so sorry to hear about Linda's passing. She and I were friends in Jr High and High School and have stayed in contact throughout our adult life. She was a wonderful Christian and my go to person for prayer requests. She loved her family and had the sweetest disposition and personality 💕💕 I will miss her forever and so will the Clay High School class of 1966. May you RIP in the arms of Jesus.
