“ Dear Family:

I remember Lloyd as such a fine christian man, who loved his family so much, especially your dear mother, Teresa.

He served the Lord with diligence, along with Teresa...I always remember their kindnesses toward me.

My condolences to all of you with love, Flora

“ Pappaw and Mammaw both lived their lives as expressions and examples of faithful Christians. I can still hear Mammaw repeating the words of faith and wisdom, "Absent from the body, present with the Lord." May we all find peace in knowing they are now both reunited with their Lord and with each other.
Love and Prayers, Cindi (granddaughter)
