“ Two beautiful little angels are gone way to soon. Much love and sympathy for the void that this rising star left in not only your families, but also in the world.

“ I am so very sorry for your losses and I want to offer my deepest sympathies. Losing ones that we love so dear is truly heartbreaking however the Bible gives us a truly comforting and reassuring promise at Isaiah 25:8 "He will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe every tear from their eyes." Our loving heavenly father knows the pain that death leaves behind and he promises not only to heal such broken hearts but also to bring all of those whom we have lost back to life forever through a resurrection. Very soon they will be reunited with you again and forever! What a wonderful day we have to hold onto.

“ Little Momma.....You were always there to love and support your Sisters and Family. I have no doubt that you are still doing the same thing today with your golden wings. Fly high my beautiful angel and take good care of everyone. Let Papa know that I will be there one day so save me a spot and meet me at the gates with that big beautiful smile. I love you! MiMi xoxo
