“ From the time I was a young boy visiting my grandmother in Huntington all the way through the email & picture I received Wednesday in thanks for a birthday gift, I have many memories of Aunt Mant's kindness and affection. I fondly remember walks along the road fronting her home, rocking & chatting on her front porch, meals at her kitchen table with produce from her garden, her love of pretty flowers, and her delight in receiving the country hams and other food gifts we sent for Christmas. Susan, Asheley, and I send our condolences to family and friends who loved Aunt Mant. We'll all miss her.
