Mary Mildred Ellis Hatcher, 92, of Barboursville, West Virginia, went to her Heavenly Home on October 31, 2011, while in the care of Hospice House, surrounded with love from her family. Born March 17, 1919, in Henlawson, Logan County, West Virginia, she was one of 14 children and was preceded in death by her parents, Emert and Lieu Ellis, and her husband of 67 years, Charles Morris Hatcher. Survivors are her children, Judy Surprise, of Daytona Beach, Florida, and her children, John, Wes, and Joy; Charles Hatcher, Jr. (Sue) and their children, Chad and Molly; Dave Hatcher (Melanie) and their son, Jason; and Steve Hatcher (Ellen) and their children, Rachel, Jimmy, and Katrina, all of Huntington, West Virginia. She has 12 great-grandchildren, with one on the way, and one great-great-granddaughter. Mary was a long-time member of River Cities Community Church. She was a teacher and later employed at Sears. She was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother. Mary will be missed by her family and friends; but all who knew her are comforted by her Christian testimony, knowing she is now in Heaven. The family wishes to especially thank Tywana Kearns, Jessica Jarvis, Juanita Blevins, and her other caregivers for their loving care the past few years. Mary loved them all dearly. “ Aunt Mary always had kind words for everyone. I can remember as a child rushing to meet her after she worked a long day at Sears. I loved going to be there when she got off. She was an Aunt who definely knew how to love. I hope I can someday become the woman that she was. I would feel so blessed. My husband Frank loved her the first moment he met her. He told me "I can see how you love her sooo much" I'm so glad I got to see her last Easter and to have pictures made with her. Aunt Mary you will always be in my heart. Jesus will be welcoming her with open arms.
