“ Misti was the longest friendship I had. People come and go, but few people just stick. She introduced me to my husband and was there for every major life event including the birth of my daughter. My heart goes out to each of you today as you pay respects to her. Please know that she had a heart of gold and her lasting memory will be the impact she had on our own lives. Misti will be greatly missed and forever loved.

“ I'll be out of town Monday evening but wanted you to know I'm thinking of you. I hope this section of Romans 8 is a comfort to you. It has always been for me. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written: "For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

In the few short years I've know you it seems like we were friends forever....and we will be! Watch over your mommy and Little Zan man and let them feel your presence. “ I went to school with Autumn at Peyton Elementary where my Mom was a teacher. Autumn and I were close friends and although I never met Misti, I know she was a sweet girl from talking to Autumn and reading everyone's comments. I know the pain of losing your daughter from experience and I am so sorry Autumn has to endure this too! God Bless You Autumn, I love you?
