It makes me sad to learn of Nancy's passing . I did not know her personally but she was a friend to my sister Valerie Gibson . They went to school together & when Val lived in Huntington her & Nancy got together when time allowed . It's such a comfort when you know they are going to their heavenly home . Prayers for her family .

“ I was Nancy's Title I teacher at Sprigg. I invited her to church, and from there, we became good friends. Nancy was a very special person. She had a good heart, and always tried to help, but she was one who always spoke her mind. She will be missed. Love and prayers to her remaining family.

“ I met Nancy three plus yrs ago. She was like no other that I had ever met. She was a tough, caring person with a beautiful heart. I will miss our daily calls and will forever cherish the last visit I got to spend with her on Sunday before her passing while in the hospital. Nancy was a wonderful caregiver and an awesome friend whom left a big imprint on my heart. I will miss my friend more than she could have ever known. I know she greived for her sister and it brings comfort to know she is now with the Lord and her sister and rest of her family. Rest easy Fancy Nancy I miss and love you~~~Joann

“ All the laughs and chats we had from junior high and up. I will miss your calls and that “what are you doing ole man”. You rejoice in your new home and sing those songs of praises. I will not be sad for you but happy that you are now walking streets of gold and resting by the river of life. Love you my friend

“ She called to check on me and Jayden everyday. You had a heart of gold, a genuine love for Jayden, who you called your WWE buddy. I already miss our nightly phone calls. You are greatly missed Auntie Beas. Enjoy those streets of Gold and sitting at Jesus feet. Your healing is complete. He made you whole.

“ We’ve known Nancy for many years. She always seemed to have a tough exterior, but really had a soft and caring heart. You just had to “know her”. I’ve seen people that had needs and unable to get them taken care of, but Nancy would try her best to help them. You will be missed Nancy. Enjoy your time with the Lord.
